Addendum to Application for Occupancy
Definitions based upon FmHA Instruction 3560

What is considered a disability?

1. Person with a disability. A person who is considered disabled if the person meets the criteria of either of the following:
 - A. The person has an inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determined physical or mental impairment which:
 - B. Has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12, or which can be expected to result in death;
 - C. Substantially impedes the ability to live independently;
 - D. Is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions, or
 - E. In the case of a blind person who is at least 55 years old (within the meaning of blindness as determined in section 223 of the Social Security Act), is unable, because of the blindness, to engaged in substantial gainful activity in which he/she has previously engaged with some regularity over a substantial period of time

Note: Receipt of veteran's benefits for disability, whether service oriented or otherwise does not automatically establish disability.

2. A person has a developed mental disability; a sever, chronic disability which:
 - A. Is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairment
 - B. Was manifested before age 22.
 - C. Is likely to continue indefinitely
 - D. Results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity, (1) self-care (2) receptive and expressive language (3) learning (4) mobility (5) self-direction (6) capacity for independent living (7) economic self sufficiency
 - E. Reflects the persons need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary or generic care, treatment, or for other services, which are lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated.

What is considered handicap?

1. A person with a handicap is a person with a physical or mental impairment that;
 - A. Is expected to be long continued or indefinite duration.
 - B. Substantially impedes the person's ability to live independently and can be improved by more suitable housing conditions.
 - C. Is of such a nature that the persons ability to living dependently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.
2. The term handicapped or handicap further means, with respect to a person, a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, a record of such impairment, or being regarded as having such an impairment. This term does not include current illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance. As used in the definition, physical or mental impairment includes:
 - A. Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one of more of the body systems: neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organs, respiratory, including speech organs, cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive, genito-urinary, hemic and lymphatic; skin, and endocrine; or
 - B. Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotion or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction (other than caused by current, illegal use of a controlled substance), alcoholism.
3. Major life activates means functions such as caring for one's self, performing major tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.
4. Has a record of such impairment means has a history of or has been misclassified as having a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.
5. Is regarded as having a impairment:
 - A. Has a physical or mental impairment but does not substantially limit one or more major life activities, but is treated by another person as constituting such a limitation;
 - B. Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities only as a result of the attitudes of others towards such impairment; or
 - C. Has one of the impairments defined in paragraph 4A and 4B of the definition but is treated by another person as having such an impairment.

The information regarding race, national origin and sex designation solicited on this application is requested in order to assure the Federal Government, acting through Farmers Home Administration, that Federal laws prohibit discrimination against tenant applicants on the basis or race, color, national origin, religion, familial status, and handicapped are complied with. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. The information will not be used in evaluating your application or to discriminate against you in any way. However, if you choose not to furnish it, the owner is required to note the race/national origin and sex of individual applicants on the basis of visual observation or surname.
